New studio, New work

In recent months Patula Berm acquired a new studio space in an old disused kindergarten in the west of Amsterdam. As a result she developed the lampworking technique and has created a new body of work called 'Birthday' and 'Swinging moods'.

Her involvement with Van Tetterode glass studios continues and maintains an important aspect in her glass making process.

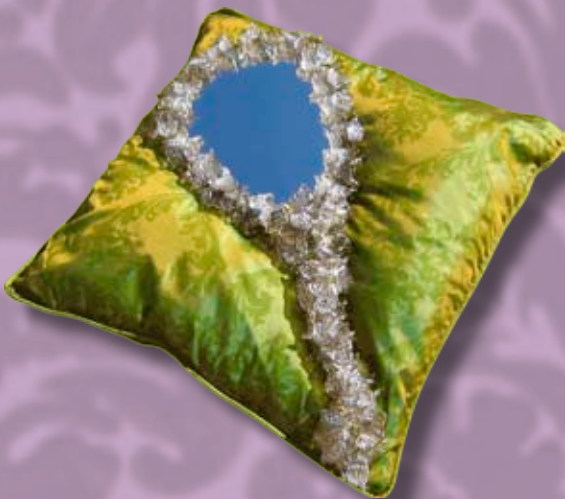

Birthday

As surprise for every birthday we receive another mirror, just like the candles on the cake are a surprise. Reminding us that today is our birthday.

Wall Mirrors

Made from old and new mirrors of various sizes and shapes, decorated with lampworked glass ornaments, such as crawling insects and organic forms.

Material / technique: lampworked Moretti glass.
Diverse sizes.

Swinging Moods

Everyday another feeling...

Hand held mirrors

Material / technique: lampworked Moretti and Bullseye glass, double sided on cushions.
Various sizes.
